

Chicago YSA Field Day

About Chicago YSA Field Day:

For the 6th year in row, Chicago Youth Sports Alliance is collaborating with Chicago-area Big Ten Alumni Associations to sponsor and organize a one-day athletics and fitness based event for children living in inner-city Chicago. The event promotes the importance of fitness and physical activity through a series of athletic, educational, and team building activities. Additionally, the event allows students from local school systems to experience the excitement of the Big Ten and learn about the importance of higher education through interaction with Chicago-based alumni.
